

CAPT. WEDGWOOD NOMINATED FOR JUDGE

Has it All His Own Way at Provo-Sam A. King Nominated to be District Attorney.

S. A. King

Wedgwood

Provo, Sept. 5.—The Democratic judicial convention here for the fourth district met this morning. The convention was called to order by O. F. Malmberg, who named William Buys of Wasatch and Herbert Tyack of Uintah as temporary chairman and secretary. Chairman Buys thanked the convention for the honor conferred, and called attention to the importance of the duties devolving upon it.

Motions to appoint committees were made, and the convention soon became so tangled on motions, amendments, substitutes, etc., that Hon. William O'Neill of Uintah moved to "scratch everything out" and begin over. This was done, and the following committees were appointed:

Credentialed—O. F. Malmberg, Utah; William Ashton, Uintah; James W. Clyde, Wasatch.

Permanent Organization and Order of Proceedings—Utah: A. M. Lowell, Mass. In 1856, he moved to Nebraska, where he was Sheriff of Hall county for four years and was born in 1879.

Biographical.

Capt. Edgar A. Wedgwood was born in Lowell, Mass. In 1856, he moved to Nebraska, where he was Sheriff of Hall county for four years and was born in 1879.

Mr. King also expressed a deep sense of the honor conferred by the nomination, and promised to faithfully and conscientiously perform the duties of his office if elected.

Judge Wedgwood briefly thanked the convention for the honor of the nomination, and promised to faithfully and conscientiously perform the duties of his office if elected.
